

Lackawanna County

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
Patrick M. O'Malley • Jerry Notarianni
Laureen A. Cummings

Lackawanna County Area Agency On Aging Announces Assistance With Rebate Forms

Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging provides assistance with Rebate Forms

The Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging provides assistance to qualifying older adults residing in Lackawanna County with their 2016 State Property Tax/Rent Rebate forms.

To qualify for the rebate, Pennsylvanians must be age 65 and older; widow and widowers age 50 and older; and people with disabilities age 18 and older. The income limit for a Homeowner is $35,000 and $15,000 for Renters. Rebates range from $250-$650. The Department of Revenue will begin mailing and depositing rebates on July 1. The deadline for filing the form(s) is June 30. However, the deadline for filing the forms has been extended to December 31, 2017 for the 2016 rebate.

Howard McIntosh, Senior Outreach Worker at the Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging, visits Senior Centers, high rises and low rises throughout Lackawanna County to help complete the forms.

Mr. McIntosh will visit the Senior Centers from 9 AM – 11 AM on the following days and locations:

- South Side Center, 425 Alder Street, Scranton, on the first Wednesday of every month
- West Side Center, 1004 Jackson Street, Scranton, on the first Thursday of every month
- Dunmore Center, 1414 Monroe Avenue, Dunmore, on the second Friday of every month
- Carbondale Center, 66 North Church Street, Carbondale, on the third Thursday of every month
- Abington Center, 1151 Winola Road, Clarks Summit, on the third Friday of every month
- Mid-Valley Center, 310 Church Street, Jessup, on the fourth Wednesday of every month

Mr. McIntosh may be able to assist with completing the Pennsylvania 600 applications needed for the Department of Human Services.

In order to schedule visits to the home-bound, the telephone number for Mr. McIntosh is 570-904-7792, or by contacting the Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging at 570-963-6740.