“The Small House of Uncle Thomas” – dance master class – 10:30 am – 12:30 pm

One of the most charming, yet poignant scenes in THE KING AND I is the reenactment of the story of Uncle Tom's Cabin. Jerome Robbins' choreography masterfully integrates Asian dance into a musical intended for Western audiences. Dancers from the company will teach this unique style of dance used in the production. This Free dance workshop will be held in the Marywood University Center for Athletics and Wellness from 10:30 am – 12:30 pm.

Target: intermediate and advanced high school and college dancers; current teachers of dance.

“THE KING AND I and Me” – a peek into a life of theatre presented by actress Annie Sherman, 12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Annie Sherman is understudy for the role of Anna in THE KING AND I. She will share her story from her first inspiration to be in theatre to the privilege of touring with a professional company. She will answer the most frequently asked questions by students interested in or curious about theatre. This Free workshop takes place at the Scranton Cultural Center from 12:00 pm – 1:00 pm.

Target: elementary, secondary and college students; teachers of the performing arts.

HOW TO MAKE A RESERVATION

Participants will make their own reservations by contacting Broadway Theatre League directly. You can call the Broadway Theatre League Office at (570) 342-7784 to pay by credit card, or visit the office at 345 N. Washington Ave. weekdays from 10-4 to pay by cash or check. Make sure to tell the secretary that you are making a reservation for the Broadway Theatre Link program. Tickets are limited. Your tickets will be given to you at the workshop on the day of the play.
