

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

The consultant team, led by Barry Isett & Associates, presents a slideshow highlighting study ideas to the public while Steve Pitoniak Lackawanna County Planning Dept. Manager (seated, left) looks on.

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

The meeting was held 5PM at:
Lackawanna Heritage Valley
213 Railroad Avenue, Scranton

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

Stephanie Milewski, RLA of Barry Isett & Associates presents information on the study's development.

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

Members of the media covering the evening's presentation.

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

This meeting focused on the downtown Scranton portion of the study. Another public meeting is scheduled to present study ideas for downtown Wilkes-Barre. That meeting will occur 5PM (weather permitting) on Jan. 21 in Room 214 of the Arnaud C. Marts Center, Wilkes Univ., 292 S. Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre (snow date Jan. 23).

Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre Downtowns Bicycle- Pedestrian Study

Public Outreach Meeting
Jan. 14, 2020

Luzerne County Transportation Planners
Christopher Chapman and John Petrini
(front table, right) listen to the presentation
along with members of the public.

