Spring Vendor Craft Fair Benefits Drug & Alcohol Prevention Program

The Riverside Promoting School-community-university Partnerships to Enhance Resilience (PROSPER) team is hosting a spring vendor and craft fair on Saturday, April 4, from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

The planning committee is accepting applications for vendors to sell their products or crafts. The entry fee is $30 for a single space. Vendors can keep all of their profits from their booths, but they will be responsible for providing a door prize.

Proceeds from the event will benefit PROmoting School – community – university Partnerships to Enhance Resilience (PROSPER) drug and alcohol prevention programs at Riverside Elementary East School.

For more information about the vendor craft fair or for an application, contact Karen Thomas at the Penn State Extension at 570-963-6842.
