LIVE FEED – HARRISBURG – TODAY – Wolf Administration to Provide Update on Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Today, Department of Health Secretary Dr. Rachel Levine and Department of Aging Secretary Robert Torres will provide an update on the coronavirus known as COVID-19, outline ongoing guidance for travelers and provide information for older adults on how to stay safe as the virus spreads in Pennsylvania.

The Department of Health anticipates that there will be more Pennsylvanians who test positive for COVID-19 in the coming days and weeks and it is important for residents to know the commonwealth is prepared and to be prepared themselves. The Wolf Administration is working with the health care community across Pennsylvania to keep them informed, consult on patient testing and ensure they have the resources they need to care for patients.
