Commissioner Domenick Cosponsors Blood Drive To Alleviate Shortage

Lackawanna County Commissioner Debi Domenick, right, cosponsored a blood drive with the American Red Cross on April 16 at the Peckville Assembly of God, Blakely, in response to the dire shortage caused by the pandemic. Forty-one pints were collected, which will save up to 123 lives. Another drive is slated for May at a date and location to be announced shortly.
