

CNR Provides Guidance on Outdoor Activities During Coronavirus Outbreak

April 02, 2020

Harrisburg, PA – Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) Secretary Cindy Adams Dunn reminded Pennsylvanians that being outdoors is good health care and self care, but recommendations for social distancing to slow the spread of the coronavirus still apply.

CLICK HERE for Audio, Video, and Photos for your News Stories and Websites

A Service of Commonwealth Media Services, Department of General Services

To ensure you receive our newest content, add PAcast - cms@pacast.com - to your contacts list.