Coronavirus Update: Domestic Relations Client Services Continue

Although the Lackawanna County Domestic Relations Office is closed to the public, Domestic Relations Officers and staff are available to speak with clients over the phone and address questions and concerns via email.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY: All support conferences, modifications, enforcement conferences and contempt hearings will be held over the telephone. On the day and time of the conference or hearing, you will receive a phone call from your officer. Since many officers are using their personal phones, the phone number may appear as blocked or restricted. Please, be prepared to participate, uninterrupted, for the entire duration of the proceeding.

If you are scheduled for a support conference or modification it is important, at least two days prior to the conference, that you email or fax to your conference officer the following:

- ✓ verification of current income,
- ✓ a copy of pay stubs,
- ✓ recent tax returns or
- ✓ a determination of unemployment income.

If you are unable to participate remotely, please contact your officer at least three business days prior to the scheduled appointment to discuss other arrangements. Failure to do so, especially if you are scheduled for a contempt hearing may result in the issuance of a bench warrant.

For your convenience a list of the Domestic Relations Officer's email addresses are included:
