Call for Panelists Virtual Arts Brunch

The Lackawanna County Arts and Culture Department is a local government office located in northeastern Pennsylvania and is the only county in the state to have a dedicated tax to support arts and culture in the county.

One of our programs is an annual Wake Up with the Arts Breakfast featuring national speakers on arts and culture topics. Because of the pandemic, we will be presenting a Virtual Arts Brunch featuring four panelists who have had significant success adapting to the new world of social distancing in the arts. The brunch will take place on Friday, October 9, 11:00 – 12:30 p.m. am. We are currently accepting applications for panelists. To be considered to be a panelist fill out this form by Friday, September 18. Panelists will each receive a $500 stipend and will be notified by September 25th, 2020 if selected.
