PennDOT Extends Expiration Dates on Commercial Driver Licenses, Commercial Learner's Permits and Hazardous Materials Endorsements

Harrisburg, PA – The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced today that in response to statewide COVID-19 mitigation efforts, expiration dates for commercial driver licenses and commercial learner's permits will be extended for Pennsylvania residents through September 30, 2020. Expiration extension deadlines on non-commercial driver license, photo identification cards, learner's permits and camera cards will expire on August 31.

Effective August 31, the following products' expiration dates will be extended:

- Commercial learner's permits scheduled to expire from March 16, 2020, through September 30, 2020;
- Commercial driver licenses scheduled to expire from March 16, 2020, through September 30, 2020; and
- Hazardous Materials Endorsements (HME) for individuals who are a Pennsylvania-licensed commercial driver's license holder and who held a valid, unexpired HME with a determination of no security threat on or after March 6, 2020.
